BIOGRAPHY

Hailing from Rockford, Illinois with deep roots in the DMV, SHEMON is a genre-blending artist, songwriter, and producer whose sound bridges the grit of '90s R&B with modern soul. He began playing drums in church at three and was producing by eleven, going on to manage two major recording studios in Washington, DC.

His placements include Wale's RIAA Gold "Love Me Nina" and "Set You Free," and No Savage's "Dirty 38" (10M+ streams). Since relocating to Atlanta in 2019 he has written and produced alongside Drumma Boy and Jazze Pha, with credits spanning Usher, Chris Brown, K. Michelle, Dexta Daps, Layton Greene, and Ne-Yo. As a solo artist on SL Records, his releases run from his debut "Think Twice" to recent single "My Possession."
